

Private area

Written by Administrator

This is an area that allows private access of the RESATER consortium partners to the information exchange forums existing at the observatory. In addition, these professionals can upload reports and publications to be disseminated and discussed by other visitors.